January, FRIDAY 1. 1892.

Praise God from whom all blessings flows. This is a beautiful day. every body seems to look happy today. I have called on Mr and Mrs. Brock and Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. I have did nothing much today so far. This morning while front I saw J.E.H. the first time in a great while. I received no money today, but I have very good health thank God and that is so much better than money. This evening I was at Church, this being the twenty-nineth anniversary of emancipation proclamation was celebrated tonight at the Chapel. Mr. Isaiah C. Wear and Mr. A. K. McClure were the speakers. There was agrat many out and every thing went off nicely. Went to bed at 12 Oclock. I was at Sister Butlers after lunch.

January, SATURDAY 2. 1892.

Late getting up today. raining quite hard, has rained off and on since midnight. At market. Mr. Haseltine is going out for dinner tonight and I have just been to take a note for him. and out I stoped and Mrs. Andersons and there met Mrs. Woodland. She seemed to be some what provoked about something with me. I have paid for the recorder for two years this afternoon. I was to see DeCato this evening and He told me that Hale had gone home and that he was going South in ten days from now. While I was at DeCato a man came in to see him and they both acted quite funny indeed. DeCato left me in the back room and went out with his friend into the next. 11 Oclock.

January, SUNDAY 3. 1892.

up early and at prayer meeting. Brother Washington was to have open this morning but he was late getting up, so I had to open myself. We had avery good meeting. A Mr. Johnson preached this morning from West Chester at 10.45 He spoke quite well. I remained for the class this morning, and lead it. This afternoon I went to Bro Butlers first then down to Cousin James Washington from there to Mrs. Andersons, and from Mrs. Andersons to Mrs. Kings. I was at Church again tonight but not many out. after Church I went around to bro Butler's awhile before coming in. It is quite cold tonight. I am going to bed very early. 10.30 Oclock

January, MONDAY 4. 1892.

Late getting up this morning. After breakfast today I cleaned silver for four hours. Have not been out any where today yet. This evening before going to church I called at the Andersons awhile. I then stoded in to prayer meeting and paid over my class money to brother Brock. I had $6.00. It has snowed alittle this evening for the first time this season.

Went to bed at 11.45 Oclock

January, TUESDAY 5. 1892.

Not so cold as yesterday. I had aletter from J.E.H. this morning and am glad to know he is better and able to write again. I sweeped and cleaned the dining room today also the pantry. I have just written aletter to my Sister Martha. This evening I was at Church we had avery good meeting quite a lot out. Mr. Tailer spoke. I think he talked rather long.

There has not been much for me to write about today.

Went to bed at 11 Oclock.

January, WEDNESDAY 6. 1892.

It is snowing this morning. I cleaned off the snow front before going to Market so when I came in I only had the yard to do. This afternoon I went down to see Mrs. Sadie Brown who is quite ill in bed and has been for the last week past. I talked with her for some time and then I prayed with, and for her. This evening I was at church. We had a good meeting quite anumber out concitering the weather. Mr. Taylor preached. I like him better then I did a first. Some how I have not entered into the spirit of this meeting as I should like to, but I am trying hard to do so.

Rather late getting in tonight. Went to bed at 11.30 Oclock Lulu Handy my sister was Married today, I hear.

January, THURSDAY 7. 1892.

This is a beautiful morning quite cold but very bright. I was out for alittle while this forenoon and had then intended to go out again this afternoon, but Kate had to go down to her Brother's so I could not make it to get out again. I am now disappointed in going out this evening also. Kate is going out again with Mary Brown so I will not get to church.

Went to bed at 11.45 Oclock.

January, FRIDAY 8. 1892.

very cold this morning. I have been out awhile. I taken the tacks out of the carpet in Mr. Haseltine's room. This afternoon I written two letters and did some reading. This evening I was at church Brother Brock spoke afterwards we engaged into a prayer meeting for ashort time not many out. I heard that Mrs. Sadie Brown is better tonight.

Went to bed at 11.45 Oclock

January, SATURDAY 9. 1892.

quite late getting up this morning The day is a very fine. after breakfast I went to market, and after market, I went to Mr. Haseltine's room and got it ready for the men to put down the carpet. I remained there in the room with them all the while. This afternoon I went to pay some bills for Mr. Haseltine. This evening I called at the Anderson's and there learned to my great surprise that Mrs. Sadie Brown had pasted away this morning. I am so glad that I was to see her on Wednesday last, little I then thought that that would be the last time I would see her alive. Little Carrie Brice is very ill. I was to see her also this evening and heard she was much better. I am getting very sleepy up early and at prayer meeting Bro Butler had this morning not many out but agood meeting. At 10.45 Bro Brock preached a beautiful sermon and adminicered the Sacrement and baptize achild. This afternoon I went to bro Butler's and he and I first went to 15th and Lombard Sts church. the church was full so we could not get in so we went on to Mr. Brown's his wife being dead. From there we went to see little Carrie Brice who is very ill. Then I went around home with Bro B—and had some dinner with him and family. and this evening the Rev Mr. Taylor preached agood sermon. we did not have any prayer meeting this evening. Went to bed at 10.45 Oclock.

January, SUNDAY 10. 1892.

January, MONDAY 11. 1892.

It has snowed alittle today and is quite cold. So far nothing to write about except that I have received a letter from J.E.H. I went down to Mrs. A. Butler's awhile today.

At Church this evening not any one out much Brother Smith spoke.

January, TUESDAY 12. 1892.

It is looking like rain. I am going to Mrs. Sadie Brown's funreil today at two oclock. It is to take place at Allen Chapel. This morning I saw J.E.H. from the old look out and they were very charming. Well I have been to the funreil and it was very well attended. I afterwards went down to the Anderson's for quite awhile I met Mrs. Davenger Mrs. Woodland and Mrs. Bree and they all got at me about not marrying. but I think that I held my own with them all. At church this evening Bro Brock spoke and we had a very good meeting I came home at 10.15 and went to bed at 11 Oclock.

January, WEDNESDAY 13. 1892.

It is raining very had and has rained off and on all night. At market. and have did nothing much since. This evening I attended prayer meeting at Allen Chapel. Some Mr. Henry spoke. He talked very well indeed. We had one person up for prayer. a young man. I walked out home with Miss Price. I then came in and went to bed at 10.45 Oclock.

January, THURSDAY 14. 1892.

It is raining still quite hard this morning. I went out to take anote for Mr. Haseltine today and I walked down Chestnut St. and saw lots of purty things. When I came in again I cleaned my silver.

This evening I was at prayer meeting again there was a large number at it. avery good meeting. Bro Brock was very late in coming tonight. We had no one up for prayer tonight. Dr. Lee I hear is very anxious for me to join the Y.M.C.A. but I don't know what to do about it just yet. There is not much going on to write. So I shall go to bed at once. 11.45 Oclock.

January, FRIDAY 15. 1892.

We have quite a Snow this morning and it is still snowing now. I have been working in snow and ashes all day. Mr. Haseltine is going out to dinner this evening so I shall go out early too and have my hair cut before church time. When I went to the barber shop I found Mr. Fry the man that always does my work was at home sick, and had been for three weeks so the young man that did my cutting did it very well. After leaving the shop I called at Mrs. Cummings to see her Mother who is sick in bed I sat with her for awhile before going to Church and it made me late for church. We had one convert in our meeting tonight. I Walked up the St with Bro Orrick. Went to bed at 12 Oclock.

January, SATURDAY 16. 1892.

This is a beautiful morning Clear and cold. At market was late getting in again. Have done nothing much since. Today I bought myself a tooth brush. And this is the very first thing I have gotten for myself this year. This evening I called at the Anderson's but there were no one home except the children so I only stayed for alittle while and then walked down Walnut St and met a young man I had been thinking about all day. but he did not come in with me as he said he was going to do. I saw Mr. D. J. Bullock and talked with him for some time tonight and 19th and Samson Sts.

Went to bed at 11.15 Oclock.

January, SUNDAY 17. 1892.

This is a beautiful morning and just to think I did not go to prayer meeting. I am now quite ashame of myself for it. The Rev. J. W. Beckett preached all day. We had a full church and good sermon. Mr. Woodson went up for prayer this morning. This afternoon I attended Sunday School. We had a large number out. From there I went to Mrs. Anderson's and stayed until it was time to come in for supper. I was at church again this evening Bro Beckett spoke again and then was prayer meeting afterwards and Mr. Woodson was the only one that went up to be prayed for. I heard this after noon that Mrs. Woodson is sick. This has been a glorious day to me and do thank God so much for it. Went to bed at 10.30 Oclock.

January, MONDAY 18. 1892.

It is raining this morning. I have cleaned silver today did not go out as I had intended to this morning at first. At church this evening quite a good many out and a very good meeting. We had no one forward for prayer. Afterwards I went home with Bro Butler for awhile.

Went to bed at 11.15 Oclock.

January, TUESDAY 19. 1892.

It is still raining today. I have cleaned the dining room and closets today. Then I went to take anote for Mr. Haseltine and stoped at the Anderson's on my way back. I also met Dr. Beckett in the Street. I saw Miss Stoney at Mrs. Anderson's Heard that Mrs. S. Woodland is quite unwell today. This evening on my way to church I called by Mrs. Burke's to see how she was and found he no better I am sorry to say. The meeting at church tonight was avery good one indeed. We had one convert and two others down. The convert was Brother Woodson. We were all glad to see him get up and confess the lord.

Went to bed at 11.45 Oclock.

January, WEDNESDAY 20. 1892.

It has snowed in the night and is very cold this morning. I have been working with snow all morning. I have wanted to go down to Mrs. Woodson all day but it seem that I am not going to make it. at church this evening and Dr. Handy of Washington spoke we had afull house. there were three persons up for prayer and one of them came through.

I walked home with Sister Logan from church.

Went to bed at 11 Oclock.

I written aletter to J. this afternoon.

January, THURSDAY 21. 1892.

very cold this morning but clear. I have taken up the ashes today. this afternoon I taken a bath, then I went to see Mrs. Woodson and found her much better than I expected to found her from what I had heard. I also went to Chapel to the afternoon prayer meeting but there was not any I then went to Mrs. Andersons for awhile. This evening I was at church for only short time as Mr. Haseltine was not feeling very well. However I went to back to church later and then went home with Bro Butlers and stayed for the night. They were having a good time at the church when I got back there.

Went to bed at 12 Oclock.

January, FRIDAY 22. 1892.

It is looking like rain. Mr. Haseltine is going to have some friends to dinner today so I shall not be able to get to meeting this evening. I am quite sorry for it as this is Mr. Beckett's last night with us. 10 Oclock P.M. I have gotten through with dinner and am going to church for awhile. Annie Leonard came through tonight. She was a very bright convert indeed.

I went to bed at 12 Oclock.

January, SATURDAY 23. 1892.

Late getting up fine day. at market. Nothing much doing today. This evening I called at Sister Butler's and had a nice talk with her. I then came in early and went to bed. I am going to prayer meeting in the morning if I live.

January, SUNDAY 24. 1892.

I was up early at prayer meeting. Bro Brock open the meeting and there were two persons forward for prayers. The meeting was very good in every way. I snowed at 10 Oclock today. Rev Dr Smith of Atlantic City preached at 10.45. large number out to hear him. We had union meeting this afternoon with Brothers Offley's and Redick's churches. It was perfectly grand there were four different speakers and they all spoke very well. I called to see Sister Burrell and Bro. Swell this afternoon. They have both been very ill and are still in bed. I went to Bro Butlers and taken dinner with him and family. At church this evening again and Dr. Smith preached again to a crowded house. prayer meeting afterwards one convert. I went to bed at 10.30 Oclock.

January, MONDAY 25. 1892.

Avery fine day. I have been doing nothing much I had intended to go out to call on some friends today but I did not do so. I streagthen up the cellar, and did alittle writting. Mr. Haseltine is out to lunch today. Mrs. Quinn has been out all morning. This evening I went to church. Dr Heard spoke Matt 3 Chaper 2 ver. There were quite alarge number out and three persons up for prayer. and one convert. Annie Pipes came through tonight. She has had a hard time of it.

I went to bed at 11.15 Olock.

P.S. I had aletter from J H. this morning and I shall not see him this evening. I am not sorry for it though.

January, TUESDAY 26. 1892.

This is a very cold day. I went over at Mrs. Jaynes. Kettie is going away on Thursday to be married I am going to get her something so she can remember me by. This afternoon I was at the Anderson's for awhile and had quite atalk with Mrs. Rev Mr. Palmer spoke this evening for us. There were three persons up for prayer but no conversions. I went to bed at 10.50 Oclock.

January, WEDNESDAY 27. 1892.

Late getting up this morning. It is still very cold today. I have cleaned silver. After doing my marketing today I went to Callwell and bought some spoons for Kettie McLean and think them quite purty. This afternoon I wrote a letter to J. February, MONDAY 1. 1892.

This is a gray morning. I did not go out any where this forenoon for I have been expecting the woodman all day but he has not come as yet. Mr. Hasetine paid me my wagers today. I had a letter from J. saying that he would see me on the 8th of this month. I have written aletter to Davenger today asking him for some money that he is owing me. This evening I was at church but the meeting seemed cold. The trustees had ameeting and I attended it. Went to bed at 11.45 Oclock

February, TUESDAY 2. 1892.

It is damp and cold this morning. I have washed of front today, and yard also. This afternoon I went for the man to come in the morning and take away the ashes from the range. H.B. Davenger sent me a letter this afternoon, saying if I would call at his house this evening he would pay me $15.00 of the money he is owing me. I shall be sure and call. My woodman has not turned up yet. This evening I did not go to church as I had to go down to Davenger's. He paid me $15.00 of the money that he is owing me tonight. So I stayed and talked to Mr. and Mrs. Davenger the rest of the evening. I went to bed at 11.30 O'clock.

February, WEDNESDAY 3. 1892.

I was up early this morning and got ready for the ashmen who came at 7 o'clock. Before going to market today I had to go down town for Mr. Haseltine and while I was out the woodman came and left the wood. I have swept and cleaned dining room. I met Mr. Flood coming to see me. He wanted to get some money from me, but I havent any to lend now. This afternoon I went to see Mrs. Gray who is ill in bed, and when I left I gave her one dollar. She is a very poor woman with three children to care for and no one to help. I called at the Anderson's. Mr. is [] sick again. at church this evening. Dr Lee spoke no one up for prayer. I paid J.V. Simpson $20.00. the money that J.M. Rathel was owing him when he died. I promise Dr Lee that I would join the Y.M.C.A. on Sunday next. I went home with Miss Price tonight.

February, THURSDAY 4. 1892.

Late getting up this morning. it is looking very much like snow today. I have cleaned silver again today. It seems that I am always at silver any more. I went for the Dr. for Mr. Haseltine this morning. He is not very well. On yesterday I written a letter to Mrs. Harrodd. I saw J.E.H. this morning from the old look-out.

This evening before going to church I called at the Anderson's Mr. is not at all well. Mrs. and myself walked to church together. Mr. Emry spoke. ther were not out many to hear him.

February, FRIDAY 5. 1892.

Mr. Haseltine is not much better today. The Dr has been to see him. he to have some friends here to dinner this evening. so I shall not get to church tonight. The dinner went off nicely. Bro Orrick was to see me today and wants me to help him with the Turner reception but I shall do but avery little as I am short of money just now. I have had nothing much to write about today of any interest.

February, SATURDAY 6. 1892.

Late getting up this morning. It is quite cold but clear and bright at market. This has been avery funey day to me I have done nothing I had inteneded to do today. This afternoon I taken some cards for Mr Haseltine over to Spruce St. I then called at the Andeson's before coming in. We did not have dinner until seven oclock this evening on the account of Mr. cox coming in to see Mr. Haseltine. Mr. Haseltine is very much better today. This evening I went to see the Butlers and had a good time with them.

I went to at 11 O'clock.

February, SUNDAY 7. 1892.

I was very late getting up this morning so I was late getting to prayer meeting. Bro Butler open and the meeting was avery good There was one person up for prayer. At church at 11 Oclock and Bro Fisher spoke not many out. After preaching was over one person joined the church and came into my class. This afternoon I went down to the Y.M.C.A and enjoyed it very much. Mr. Haseltine is still better today. I was at the Butlers for dinner to-day. This evening at church Bro Brock spoke not many out. I went to bed at 11 Oclock.

February, MONDAY 8. 1892.

This is beautiful morning. Mr. Haseltine is going out today for the first time for over aweek. This afternoon I called at Sister Butler's and while there bro Brock came in and he and I called upon bro Orrick together in regards to the reception which is to come off on Friday evening and I think now that every thing has been aranged satisfactry for it. I afterwards went home with bro Brock for awhile and had a nice talk with him. This evening I attended love feacet at Chapel and it was very grand in every way.

This morning I way J.E.H.

Went to bed at 11 Oclock.

February, TUESDAY 9. 1892.

This is another very fine day. I have been to take a note down the Miss Fisher's. I bought a picture this morning at the door to make a present of to Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Butler. This afternoon I took the picture to the Butler's and they all seemed well pleased with it. I have again written to my Sister Eliza today. This evening I called at the Anderson's on my way to church. Mr. Anderson is better and is to go to work to-morrow. There were not many out to the Christian endeavor meeting. I walked to 17th and Walnut Sts with Bro Cooper.

I went to bed at 11.10 O'clock.

February, WEDNESDAY 10. 1892.

It is still fine weather. This is a beautiful morning. I have cleaned the dinning room today and did the marketing. This afternoon Damwood Jones came to see me. I saw Dr. Jayne this afternoon. I came near falling on the St and he laughed at me and said he expected that I would yet break my neck sometime. My morning's lesson was on love. At Class this evening but there was not many of my members out. I lead them that were and then helped bro Fisher with his leading. I went to bed at 11 O'clock

February, THURSDAY 11. 1892.

I was up early today and cleaned some silver before breakfast. I had to go to the market again today. This evening I met my class but few out, but the meeting was good. After class, I went home with bro Butler for awhile. This is the evening of the great concert of all of the A.M.E. churches of the City. I did not go to it though. went to bed at 10.30 O'clock.

February, FRIDAY 12. 1892.

Late getting up today. I have been getting things ready for the dinner Mr. Haseltine is giving this evening. I have done nothing else. The Dr was in again today to see Mr. Haseltine. This afternoon I went down to see Mr. Orrick and to tell him that I could not get off this evening to help with the reception that is to be given to Bishop Turner at Allen Chapel this evening. It is very cold tonight and I am not sorry that I am not going out. sometimes I think that I am growing old fast, because I care such alittle about going any where except to church.

February, SATURDAY 13. 1892.

I did not get up early as I thought I would do last night when I went to bed. I was at market and down Chestnut St. This afternoon I went to see the Anderson's and to hear about the reception last night and how it came off. They say it was avery nice afar lots of people there, and aplenty to eat for them all. I received letters today from Mother, and sister Eliza. They are both well they say. This evening I went to bro Butler's and helped him arrange his pictures. I had anice time of it while there. I went to bed at 11 Oclock.

February, SUNDAY 14. 1892.

Up early and at prayer meeting I open this morning not many out but there was avery good meeting in every way. There was one person up for prayer. at church again at 10.30 Dr. Bryant preached apowerful Sermon from Ezekiel first Chapter tenth verst. This afternoon I was at Sunday school and enjoyed Mr. Richings, who address the school He is awhite man but to our Race he is a true man and a lover. After I left school I went to Bainbridge Street M.E Church t the union meeting which was very good. fro there I went to see Mr. and Mrs. L. King. Mr is not well. I stayed with them quite awhile. at church again this evening bro Brock spoke on the life and works of Bishop Allen. Went to at 10.30 oclock.

February, MONDAY 15. 1892.

Late getting up this morning. This is abeautiful day not cold at all. I have been and taken my money out of the Investing Co of Phila. I have been afraid of it so, I thought it better to get out of it at once. This evening before going to church called at the Anderson's Mrs. is not so well. This evening was quarterly conference at our church tonight. all the reports were avery good and showed that the Church is progressing in every department. Mr Orrick and I came from the meeting to Locust St. together.

I went to bed at 11 Oclock.

I was to have gotten up early this morning but I did not I am growing worse about getting up every day any more. I have done nothing that I had intend doing today. This afternoon I was down the St and saw [H.]C Hale. I was very much surprice to see him here in Phila again. I think him agreat fool to have come back here. I did not go to church this evening but taken awlak down Walnut St and met ayoung man who I had met in April and taked with him for some time and am to him later. So he has come as he said he would do. I like him so much. He is certainly avery nice fellow We sat and chated until after 1 Oclock to each other and did enjoy ourselves in great stile. His name is John Veronin. I got to bed at 1.30 Oclock.

February, FRIDAY 19. 1892

I was very late getting up today. I am feeling very tried this morning after my last nights fun and I have been thinking of poor John off and on all day. I do hope thought he is all right. I have done nothing today hardly besides cleaning the breakfast room. This evening I called on the Anderson's. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson's are both unwell. I thought to go to church when I went out first tonight, but I did not. I spended the evening with the Anderson's. Came in and went to bed early. 10.30 Oclock.

February, SATURDAY 20. 1892.

I was to have gotten up early this morning but did not do it so I some of the things I had intended doing today will go undone and market but before going to market I went to Dr. Fishers for Mr. Haseltine he wanted the Dr to come to dinner with him today but the Dr was already engaged for dinner elsewhere. This afternoon I cleaned by room and had also to take out more notes for Mr. Haseltine. I shall not go out this evening After dinner I shaved and taken a bath and went to bed at 11.30 Oclock.

February, SUNDAY 21. 1892

up at 6.15 and went to prayer meeting John Gardener lead today only 10 persons out but every good meeting. I heard that Mr. John Holland was in trouble. He has been working Wanamaker's. At 11 Oclock Mr. Orrick spoke not many out. after church I went home went Cashus Harris and had along talk with him. He thinks that I ought to marry. This afternoon I went to see Mrs. Burrell who is quite. then I went to the Andersons from there to Mr. Butlers and taken dinner with him and family. I was quite late getting to church tonight. Rev Brock was speaking when I went in not very many out either tonight. I saw Mr. D. J. Bullock and Mr. Jayne in the St. today. Went to bed at 10.30.

February, MONDAY 22. 1892

up at 7.30 it is still cloudy and looks like rain. Kate has gone to a funeral this morning. Edward Johnson was to have called to see me today but he has not as yet done so. I did not go out any where today This evening I called at the Anderson's and spent the evening with them. I wrote to Brother William and Isaac Dennis today. I came in early tonight but did not go to bed until very late 2.15 Oclock.

February, TUESDAY 23. 1892

I was late getting up this morning. after breakfast I cleaned the shantelarer library. I have not been out any where today either. This evening I went and paid my building loan and from there I went to church. The King's Sons and daurthers held their concercresion meeting this evening. there was alarge number out to it. Brother J.A. Hardie made the first prayer and Brother Bowers the Sd one and Brother Edward Harris the last. The speaking was not lively at all. Milton Bell spoke but to my mind he did not know what he was talking about. Mr. Howard Bent and Dr. Fisher came to see Mr. Haseltine this evening. I went to bed at 11 Oclock.

February, WEDNESDAY 24. 1892

up at 5.30 this morning and cleaned silver and swept dinning room before breakfast. after breakfast went to market and after that I did my reglor work of today. this afternoon two gentlemen came to see Mr. Haseltine and Mr. C.C. Butler came in to see me at the same time. I was out for while this afternoon and as I was going out I saw J.E.H at his door. This evening I went aroung to Mr. Butler's and spent the evening with hm and family. On my way there I met Miss E. Harvey and walked alittle ways with. I went to bed at 12 Oclock.

February, FRIDAY 26. 1892

It has rained in the night and is now looking likely to rain more. I have read three papers today and that is about all I have done so far. This afternoon I paid some bills that I was owning. I am expecting my friend John in to see me tonight. I called at the Anderson's before going to church this evening. The meeting at church tonight was very draggy quite agood many out. after church I went home with C.C Butler awhile. I am disappointed in not seeing my friend John V. He did not come as he promised. Mr. Haseltine had some friends to come in ths evening and they did not go until it was quite late. I want to bed at 11.15 oclock.

February, SATURDAY 27. 1892

I was very late getting up this morning. It is cold today. At market and have not done much of any thing since. This afternoon I wrote to Mrs. Rathel. I have not seen nor heard anything of J.E.H. today. He changed some what of late, I think. This evening I went to see Mrs. Cummings and she paid her class money. From there I called at the Anderson's awhile. I met J.A. Hardie and Mr. Brown there. In and went to bed at 11 Oclock.

February, SUNDAY 28. 1892

up at 5.30 and went to prayer meeting. Open myself this morning. There was but afew out but the meeting was agood indeed. I walked home with Gardiner from church. It is looking like snow or rain today very much. At 11 Oclock Mr. Brock spoke and we taken a collection of sixty seven dollars $67.00. This afternoon I went to see my friends the King's and I found them not so well. I also went to Sunday school then home with the Butler's for dinner. Mrs. Woodland wanted me to go and make a call with her but I declined doing so. This evening Dr. Sceatin preached. Dr. Bryant gave out tickets for his lesture on Friday evening next I have taken 20 of them to sell. Went to bed at 11 Oclock.

February, MONDAY 2. 1892

It is still looking like snow today also. I was quite late getting up this morning. I have received aletter from Isaac Dennis today. I hear that Mrs. Orrick is quite ill I want to go and see her. this evening I called at the Anderson's on my way to church Mrs is sick and the Dr. attening her. From there I went to church with Mr. Anderson. I received $25.38 intrest on the money the church has of mine. It is now raining quite hard. I sold two tickets to Mr Pool tonight, the last I had for Friday night. I shall go and get more tomorrow if nothing happens.

Went to bed at 11.40 Oclock.

March, TUESDAY 1. 1892

I was up early today. It is still raining. We are having some coal put in today. Mr. Haseltine has been dead six years today. This morning Mr. Brock came to see me. I went to Mrs. Burke's for Mr. Haseltine. She is looking badly I think. I called at Mrs. Jayne's to see the grils and found them well. This afternoon I went to Dr. G.W. Bryant's to get tickets to sael.

March, WEDNESDAY 2. 1892.

This is a stormey today at the market. I have sold lots of my tickets today. I have done nothing much in the house besides dinning room work today. This evening I went to Mrs. Logan and she has taken 5 tickets of me. I went then to Anderson's saw the Davenger's there.

Nothing going on to write about. Went to bed at 12 Oclock. P.S. Hale came in to see me today, but said nothing about his watch at all. I sometimes think he is simple. I shall have but very little to do with him hereafter. He is certainly an N.G.

March, THURSDAY 3. 1892.

Late getting up this morning. There is to be some one here to dinner with Mr. Haseltine this evening.

I have been looking up my ticket money today and fine that I have did very well with the tickets indeed. At Class this evening and had agreat many out and avery good meeting. I was very late getting to class as Mr. Haseltine had a friend to dinare with him this evening. I received over seven dollars class money. Went to bed at 12 Oclock.

P.S. I had aletter from my friend J.E.H. this morning He sent me the last five dollars that he was owing me. And the letter read beautiful.

March, MONDAY 7. 1892.

This is abeautiful morning. I was late as usably. I have made up my mind to go to the reception on Thursday evening next at Mrs. Woodland's so I have lots of getting ready to do as I have been to receptions of any kind for years. I went to see how Mrs.

Anderson was this afternoon and found her some what better than she was last evening when I called. I bought some bark today for tea for myself and stems. I was at board meeting tonight and paid to it $8.00 class money I was the only leader out. I walked to Ann St with Logan on my way home from church. I went to bed at 1. O'clock.

March, TUESDAY 8. 1892.

It is raining. When I went to bed I thought to have gotten up early and cleaned my silver before breakfast. But laziness over taken and I did not get up until near 8 O'clock. However I have cleaned it since and have taken up the ashes also in the cellar. Mr. Haseltine is talking of going over to New York on Thursday next to meet Mr. Carlton. This evening I called at brother Butler's and had a nice talk with him.

March, WEDNESDAY 9. 1892.

up early Swept and cleaned dinning room and Closets. This evening I called at the Anderson's and there was nothing talked of but Mrs. Woodland's reception which comes off to-morrow night. I think that I may go to it. Nothing much to write about today.

March, THURSDAY 10. 1892.

up early and wash off front This has been a changeable day, it has rained, snowed, and blown. Mr. Haseltine went to New York. After I was through with my morning work I went to have my hair cut and do some shopping. This evening I went to class not so many out as last week but quite a good meeting. Then I came home and dress myself and went to the reception at Mrs. Woodland's there were a great many there and every body seemed to enjoy themselves. Mrs. Hackett is not very pretty. The ladies all looked well. I went to bed at 2 O'clock

March, FRIDAY 11. 1892.

Late getting up today. I took a note for Mr. Haseltine after breakfast and then I called at the Anderson's before coming in. and they had lots to say about the reception of last evening I think that Mrs. Woodland is some what gone on a I.J.F. Handy. Poor thing. I am so sorry for her. But not in the way that she would like I fear. I am afraid that Miss Cooper has the inside trick and the right of way with her however, time will tell all things. At church not many out. This was the evening of the Bowers Concert. Logan, came part of the way home with me. I did not think much of the concert. I went to bed at 11. Oclock.

March, SATURDAY 12. 1892.

Beautiful morning, alittle cold. At market and have did nothing much since. Mr. Haseltine has asked Dr. Fisher to dinner today. This evening I went down to the Anderson's for awhile but it was very dry down there to night. Came in early and went to bed at 11 Oclock.

March, SUNDAY 13. 1892.

Up at 6. Oclock and went to prayer meeting. Brother Brock lead. There was one young man forward for prayer and we all prayed for him. At church again at 11. Oclock Brock spoke not may out but the sermon was very good. In the afternoon I made some calls. and paid my party call to Mrs. Woodland's and there had a very pleasant time. I also called upon Miss Cooper but she was not at home It has snowed this afternoon and is now quite cold. Brother Brock spoke again this evening and admintered the surcment. There was no one to help him with it. I walked home with Miss Price, she thinks hard of Mrs. Woodland for not asking her to the reception last week. I think that women are very queer things any how. I went to bed at 11. Oclock.

June, WEDNESDAY 1. 1892.

This is another very hot day I went shopping this morning and bought myself a Hat, shoes and a Tie. I am spending a lot of money somehow. However this is what I am working for, what I can eat and wear. Willie Butler has been here for me to go out to park with him this afternoon, but I can not go I am sorry to say. I was at Mrs. Andersons.

This evening when I was coming in I met a young man who afterwards made himself very agreeable to me. I did not get in until quite late.

June, THURSDAY 2. 1892.

This is a very hot morning I went to the Andersons when I first left the house today. Mrs. Frisby was there I have not seen her for a long time before. I think her looking well indeed. This evening I went to hear Miss Tuckos at Allen Chapel she gave a entertainment there tonight but there were but few out. I had nowhere much to go tonight so I am going to bed early.

This afternoon I met brother. He has come up from Conference for tonight's entertainment He thinks that they may get through by Monday next with all business of the Conference.

I was very late getting up today.

June, FRIDAY 3. 1892.

It is still very hot today. I have been to see Sister Wolford who is sick. Then I went to brother Butlers and stayed all night. It has rained in the night and is much cooler this morning. When I called at the Andersons this evening I found a note there from Parker for me to take to Bishop Tanner at Willington tomorrow some time. And I suppose I shall have to do it there is no getting out of it now.

June, SATURDAY 4. 1892.

It is looking like rain this morning. I taken breakfast with bro Butlers family. Afterwards went home and paid my alta Friendly and reseived aletter from brother Isaac Hall with his dollar and class money for the year init. Then I went to Wilmington and saw Bishop Tanner and arranged matters with him in regards to Allen Chapel for Brock another year. I then came back to Phila gotten myself ready for Norristown. When I got there I found them all well and glad to see me. Brother Wilson is away attending conference still looking like rain went to bed early

June, SUNDAY 5. 1892.

This is abeautiful morning. After breakfast I went out with the Dr to see his patients and enjoyed it very much. The horse and carriage I enjoyed you know. This afternoon we to went to the Sunday school and that is all the church I have had today. so the Dr thought me alittle ill again. this afternoon and me for achange after driving around for awhile we then called Mr. and Mrs. Hulett I am in the dark as to Daniel's gril. He has told me nothing yet more than to swe me her picture which is quite agood looking one indeed. I like the face. This evening I went to church not very interesting sermon though.

June, MONDAY 6. 1892

Very warm this morning. Dr and I were out all morning together. He has had quite alarge number of callers off and on all day. I am so delighted with his success, for he seems to be doing so well. I am still having as good atime as ever out here.

We have been looking for brother Wilson home this evening but he has not come as yet. There is not much to relate. So I shall stop now talk to the Dr- awhile before going to bed of Bar Harbor.

Well we talked until after 12 Oclock.

June, SATURDAY 18. 1892.

It is not so warm this morning. I got up early today, as I haft to leave for Bar Harbor this morning. I went over to New York on the 8.20. I waited in New York from 10.45 until 5 oclock in the afternoon. Mrs. Jane sent us by water this season. I think that I am going to like it very much. well I am now on the Steamship Winthrop. I have a very nice Steate room and everything seems lovely. There are quite alarge number of passengers on tonight I am enjoying it so far very much I hope I shall not be sea sick.

I. did

June, SUNDAY 19. 1892.

Well I am still alive this morning and though it was some what rough last night I was not one bit sea sick. It is very foggy and cool today. I have stayed pretty much all day on deck. We have quite a lot of presons sick today though it is not rough Lizzie and Hattie both are sea sick, so sick were they that they could take no dinner. I enjoyed my dinner very much. Eating is about all there is to be done on a steamer and happy are they who can enjoyed eating such dinners as they give you on the Winthrop. I have been asleep this afternoon some thing new for me to do. I hardly ever sleep in the day after I am once up.

June, MONDAY 20. 1892.

We got to Bar Harbor this morning at 1.30 Oclock. but we did not leave the ship until 6. It is now raining very hard I got a cutunder for the girls but walked up myself. After I had breakfast I went to the village. arranged som things for Mrs. Jayne then when I came back I began house cleaning. This evening I written to Mrs. Jayne. I shall not sleep in my own room tonight as I have let Henry have my bed for his wife and children so I am now sleeping at the house.

June, TUESDAY 21. 1892.

It is still raining. We were very late getting up this morning. We have been cleaning in the second story today. This evening I went to the village for awhile did nt see any one that I knew. I have ordered a Cutunder for to-morrow afternoon, I am going to take the girls out for adrive. I went to see the boat come in tonight. There were quite alarge number of persons on her tonight. I was late going to bed.

June, WEDNESDAY 22. 1892.

Well, it is still at it. It has rained every day since I have been here. I have been cleaning windows all day. There is nothing to write about at all toay. This afternoon The girls and I taken alittle outing, in a cutunder . In the village again tonight and saw Miss Moore and another lady whoes name I cant think of now. I bought myself ascrat pin and saw a lot of pretty things in the Chines Store. I did not stay late in the village tonight.

10.30 P.M. and it is still raining.

June, SUNDAY 26. 1892.

Well it is still raining I have been to church this morning. there were agreat many out for Bar Harbor. I was to have made some calls this afternoon but it has rained so hard all the while that I could not get out. This evening I was at church again.

June, MONDAY 27. 1892.

We are still having it rainey and cold. I do hope that we may have a change before the folks comes. We are getting things in pretty good shape at last about the house. I have been to the village this morning with Henry and when I came back I put the Lamps in oder and did I have did nothing else besides this afternoon. I feel all ready now for the folks and shall be glad when they get here. I did not go to the village this evening.

This afternoon Henry taken the girls and I for adrive. I did not enjoy it much as it was so very cold.

June, TUESDAY 28. 1892.

It is raining harder this morning then ever. Mr. James Bullock is coming this afternoon. The girls and I have been very buisey alday. Mr. Bullock arrived at 5.45 looking as large and strong as ever. He and I had quite along talk togather this evening. The world seems to have suddenly changed to him. He is not the boy of last year, by any means. The rest of the family are to be with us tomorrow. I am tiered and shall go to bed at once.

June, WEDNESDAY 29. 1892.

I was very late getting up this morning. Well after all I have done I find that I have as much as I can do to be ready for the family this afternoon Mr. Bullock was up in good time so I got to work in pretty good time for all. Mr. and Mrs. Jayne came at 5.45 this afternoon and Maggie and Jesey also Mrs. Jayne seems to be well pleased with the house for which I am quite glad. There is nothing to write about today for if I do not go to the village I cant see or hear much up here. Every here is much the same. I have neglected writing so far to any of my friends. I am ashame of it but will do so at once.

July, FRIDAY 1. 1892

I was up early today. Some how I am not feeling alright. I belive that I have the blues for some cause. and I am growing worse all the while. This has been avery drary kind of aday and makes one feel like fighting or doing some dispored thing. The girls are all laughing at me because I am blue. I have desided to do ~~sème~~ a very odd thing today. I have got to know something for myself so there is to be achange soon in my lift. I am very late going to bed.

July, SATURDAY 2. 1892.

This is a beautiful morning The finest we have had since we have been there this season I had lots to do today but got through with all by lunch time. This is James M. Bullock's birth day. He is 21 today. Mrs. Jayne is not very well. Mr. Jayne and Mr. Bullock were out driving all morning. It is raining quite hard this morning. We have so much rain this season. I taken a bath and was quite late getting to bed tonight.

July, SUNDAY 3. 1892.

It is cloudy and is looking like rain again today. I have been to church this morning heard a good sermon. When church was out it began to pour down rain. I went to get a cut under for Lizzie and myself to bring us home we both got wet though not with standing we were in the cut under. This afternoon I did not go anywhere but read my Bible the entire afternoon. Did not go to church this evening or do much of anything else as I became very sleepy early in the evening and went to bed. I am keeping my promise so far very well and I trust in God I may unto the end.

July, MONDAY 4. 1892.

This is a beautiful morning a little cold. I did nothing much today in the way of work but I have done quite lot of writing have paid a great many debts off that I was owing. Mrs. Jane has been out driving today for the first. Mr. Bullock out this evening. I am to wait up for him. Mr. Bullock came in at about 11.30 O'clock.

I have Written 4 letters this evening.

July, TUESDAY 5. 1892.

Late getting up. Morning very fine. Nothing much doing. have sent my letters to the post by Mr. Bullock This afternoon I went to the village and while there I met a Mr. Allen from Philadelphia and was with him for quite some time I also saw the boat come in and quite a number of folks came on her this afternoon. All together I have enjoyed myself very much indeed.

July, WEDNESDAY 6. 1892.

This is avery fine morning. up early but have did nothing much today. This evening I went to the village with Henry Montageu but there was nothing going on there. So I came home and went to bed.

July, THURSDAY 7. 1892.

I was alittle late getting this morning. This is another beautiful day. I have been doing odds and end round the house all day. Mrs. Jayne has been driving both morning and afternoon today. This evening I got aletter from Dr. Wilson and he says that he has not heard from me. I cant tell why as I wrote him aweek ago. However I wrote him again tonight. and went down to the village late to post it. Tonight is as beautiful as the day has been. the moon is grand and bright and the night is cool. Went to bed at 11 Oclock.

July, FRIDAY 8. 1892.

The sun rose clear and bright, but at 8 oclock it was very cloudy and looks likely to rain before noon. This morning I have been doing odd jobs around so far 12 oclock. I thought to have gone to class this evening but dinner being I could not make it. Nothing to write about went to bed early.

July, SATURDAY 9. 1892.

A beautiful morning up quite early swept dinning room and hall before breakfast and did most of my rough work besides. This afternoon I went to the post office for Mrs. Jayne and to Ovington's Saw my friend Mr. Foster, chatted with him for atime. I had intended cleaning my room today but shall not do so now as it is too late to begin it. I have not done all I had laid out for myself to do today. Mr. Bullock is out tonight I shall waite up for him.

Went to bed at 12 Oclock.

July, SUNDAY 10. 1892

Weather cloudy looking something like rain. I was at church this morning and heard a good sermon by Mr Winslow from 9th Chapter 13 verse of St. John. I enjoyed it so much and think that Mr. Winslow spoke better this morning than I have ever heard him before. I walked up from the village with Miss Moore and Mrs. Bright. This afternoon I taken some letters to post from Mrs. Jayne and on my way down I met Miss Moore and Mrs Bright they were going for a walk and I joined and had a very pleasant time. I did not go out this evening anywhere. I went to bed early.

July, MONDAY 11. 1892.

Weather very fine. Up early. After breakfast I cleaned silver and trimed lamps, did other odd jobs around the house. Mr. Jayne and Mr. Bullock are to go riding with some ladies this afternoon Mrs. Jayne did not go out until quite late to drive. I thought to have done quite a great deal of writing to but I see now that I shall do none at all. I am very tired and my feet are hurting me so I shall not go to the village this evening but to bed. Henry had not gone when I went down to go to bed, so I talked to him for so time before going to my room. He is so different to what he has been heretofore with me.

July, TUESDAY 12. 1892.

weather Clare and hot. up early, but did little before breakfast. Mrs. Jayne and I have fixed up the dinning room this morning and I cleaned the Piazza also afterwards. Mrs. Jayne had two calls this morning. Lunch very late today.

I expected to have received some letters today but I did not. I do not know what to think of some of my friends they seem to have forgotten me all to-gather of late. I have nothing to write about so I shall close for today.

July, WEDNESDAY 13. 1892.

Weather very warm indeed. This is Mrs. Jayne reception day and she had 12 calls. This afternoon I tried to find Mr Allen but failed in doing so. I could not find the Cottage in which he is living so I strould around for awhile and then came in and got ready for dinner.

There is nothing going on worth writing about so I shall go to bed. I have had no letters today either.

July, THURSDAY 14. 1892.

Weather still hot. day beautiful. I have been doing odd and ends all day round the house. This afternoon I called on Miss Moore and stayed for quite along time. She seems to be avery nice person. I like her quite well. This evening I went to the village for Mr. Jayne and on my way up again I met Mr. Rumsay and chatted to him for some time. Jesse washed my dashes for me. Miss Moore wants me to meet some ladies friends of her's some evening next week. I am now reading astory called The moonstone and find it very interesting. I am now going to bed.

July, FRIDAY 15. 1892.

Weather cloudy but warm after. I got through with my work this morning I began moonstone again and read it for the rest of the day nearly. I have been no where at all today. Mrs. Jayne is not very well today. This evening J-B and I had alittle talk O— Nothing to write about so I shall go to bed.

July, SATURDAY 15. 1892.

The weather is still very fine. I have been busy all morning. This afternoon I cleaned my room. I did intend going to the village this evening but have changed now and shall not go. The girls all went out tonight.

I have nothing to write about again today so I shall close this much, of this days doings.

July, SUNDAY 17. 1892

Weather Clear and hot. At church this morning and heard avery good sermon Rev Mr. Norton preached it not many out. After the sermon we had the lord"s supper. This afternoon I went for awalk with some friends and Miss Moore. I saw my Boston friend Parker also this afternoon and was with him for some time. He is looking quite well this season. I was to have seen him again this evening but I am not going out any more. I am to seen him again this day two week I we are to go cross on Roadicks Island. I hope that I shall see him see him before that time though if all goes well with us.

July, MONDAY 18. 1892.

Weather still very hot and very dry. I have read Moonstone all day long and have done but little else besides I did not get any letters today nor I did not write any either. Mrs. Jackson is coming this week to make Mrs. Jayne a little visiet

July, TUESDAY 19. 1892.

Weather Clear and hot. Have been doing lots of odds and ends all day and reading Moonstone in between. I was to have gone over to see Miss Moore this evening but Moonstone held me fast and I did not leave the cottage at all. There is such a thing as a good book being more entersting than a pretty woman. However my friend would not take this as a complement if she know it was the book and herself that I chose between.

July, WEDNESDAY 20. 1892.

Weather the same no change at all. Mrs Jayne is at home this moring and had 7 calls. Nothing to write about except I have been reading Moonstone off and on all day. I received a letter from R.B. Fields today and he had quite a lot to say. Mr. Bullock is out this evening and I am to waite up for him.

July, THURSDAY 21. 1892.

There is still no change in the weather. We have all been getting ready for Mrs. Jackson. She is to come this afternoon. We had dinner earlier today. I broke a decanter at dinner and I was so mortified over it that I did not know what to do. I am afraid that I have frightened Mrs. Jackson very much the way I received her in the dining room.

July, FRIDAY 22. 1892.

The weather same as yesterday. Have been reading Moonstone as usual all day long. I have more letters today Nothing to write about.

July, SATURDAY 23. 1892.

Weather the same no change I gotten through with my work in right good season today so I am going to take a bath this afternoon as I want to go to the village this evening awhile. Well I have been to the village but there was nothing of any account going on there. I saw Millfort Leland with his best girl down on the Bay walk. I hcame home at ten and waited up for Mr. J. M. Bullock until 12 Oclock. I have at last finish Moonstone. I think it quite agood story and worth reading I have received 7 letters this week.

July, SUNDAY 24. 1892.

Weather hot dry windy and dusty. I was quite late getting up this Morning. Went to church at 10.45 mr. Winslow spoke not many out. I saw Miss Moore and walked alittle ways with her. This afternoon I went to see Mr. Allen I found him and glad to see me I think. I shall go to church again this evening if nothing. The sermon it was avery good one in many ways. I went to bed early.

July, MONDAY 25. 1892

Weather still hot and dry. I have been over-holling the lamps all today. and I thought to have done some wrting in the afternoon but I did not. The truth is it is so hot one can do nothing. This is the hottest weather I have ever felt in Bar Harbor or anywhere else as I can rember. I did not write any this evening eithr. so I am getting very much behind hand with my letter wrting. still I am in hopes the it will be cooler on to-morrow if so I shall have to work hard so as to get up with my wrting. Mr. J. M. Bullock is out again tonight. I am waiting up for him.

July, TUESDAY 26. 1892.

I has rained just alittle this morning but is as hot now as ever again. I am not doing much today. Mr. J. M. Bullock was not home for lounch. I had thought of going to the village this afternoon but I changed my mind and shall waite and go tonight. This evening I went to call on some ladies with Mr. S. Holmes. It was very late when we called but we went in and saw the ladies for awhile. I bought some writing paper today.

July, WEDNESDAY 27. 1892.

This is the hottest day yet I think no singe of rain and it is very dusty. Mrs. Jayne has had 12 callers this morning and they made lounch very late. This afternoon I written some letters and this evening I went to the village but saw ont much as it was very late.

I had a letter from C.C. Butler. I went with Henry to Cottage Street this evening I was down on bay shore also Mr. C. H. Page was shot today in his office dead. I am very sorry for him as I have known him for along time.

July, THURSDAY 28. 1892.

The weather is much cooler this morning. I was very late getting up Mr. J.M. Bullock was up when I came to the house. After breakfast I did some washing and when lunch was over I ironed what I had washed. Mrs. Jayne was out to lunch today. Lizzie and Jessey have gone over to Bar Harbor farry this afternoon. Mrs. Jayne and Mrs. Jackson are out driving this afternoon. I have written to Isaac Dennis avery long letter this afternoon.

Mr. J. M. Bullock is out tonight and I am to wait up for him. quite late when I gotten to bed.

July, FRIDAY 29. 1892.

It is looking like rain this morning and it is very much cooler. This is my birthday and I am quite well for an old man over forty. I am very thankfull to my heavenly father for seeing this day. I hope that I am abetter man today then I was this day twelve months ago. I have written three letters today. They were to the following persons. Mother, Mrs. Rathel and George Washington. I had intended going to the village this evening but was to late getting through so I went to bed early.

July, SATURDAY 30. 1892.

It has rain alittle today but not enough to lay the dust. at 10 it was clear and hot agin. I got through with all my work early. I taken Mr. Bullock over to the Cloub this morning with Toppey This afternoon I taken some notes for Mrs. Jayne. Then I taken abath and ashave before dinner. Mr Bullock is out again tonight I am waiting up for him.

July, SUNDAY 31. 1892

The weather clear and cool quite late getting up this morning. at church at 10.45 Mr. Winslow preached avery good sermon. On my way to church I stopped for Mrs. Matthews and taken her to church with me. This afternoon I went to the post office and from there to the boat wharf stayed for awhile then went for a walk on the bay shore. There I met Parker. he was not very well so he did not stay out long. I afterwards met Miss Moore and was with her the rest of the afternoon. This evening at church again but I was very late so I did not enjoy it very much. I went to bed early.

August, MONDAY 1. 1892.

Weather cloudy looks like rain. Mrs. Jayne and Mrs. Jackson have gone to Mrs. Places this morning to amusacal. This afternoon they are to go to the Barneys to ate. There is nothing to write about so I am going to bed as I don't have to wait up for Mr. Bullock. I have received No letters today.

Mr. Bullock is out tonight but I shall not wait up for him though.

August, TUESDAY 2. 1892.

It is looking very much like rain this morning but it has looked so for the last day or two I shall not look for it any more until I see it. I have cleaned silver today and that is all I have done except the dining room work. Mrs. Jayne did not go out today any where. I have been feeling pretty badly all day. Some times I think that I must be love sick if there is such a thing. I am thinking strongly now about getting my self married and settling down and make a home for myself. However I dare say by tomorrow I will changed my mind to some else.

August, WEDNESDAY 3. 1892.

Weather fine no rain as yet. This is Mrs. Jayne's morning at home. She has had 7 callers today. This afternoon I have washed all the windows around on the first floor. Mrs. Jayne and Mrs. Jackson have gone driving. This evening I went to the village for awhile but there was not much going on there. Saw but few I know. So I came home early and went to bed.

August, THURSDAY 4. 1892.

This is a beautiful day quite warm again though. This is the day of Mrs Jaynes tea. So I am very busy there is so much to be done that I can't see how I am to get through with every thing. This afternoon Mr. Homles came to see me but I had no time to spend with him I am sorry to say. Well, the Tea went off well and Mrs. Jayne seemed to enjoy it very much. There were some very pretty ladies here and very prettily dressed. I am very late getting through tonight. Mr Jayne is out and I am to wait up for him. I had a letter from C.C. Butler today.

August, FRIDAY 5. 1892.

It is raining this morning. I was quite late getting up today. After breakfast I put the dining room in order again for yesterday's Tea had it upside down. Mr. Jayne was very late for lunch today. I have done some writing this afternoon. have received n letters today. Nothing to write about, so I shall go to bed.

August, SATURDAY 6. 1892.

This is another fine day. was up early and cleaned hall before breakfast then I did my Saturday's work. This afternoon I took a bath and while I was in bath, Mr Roberts came to see me. He wants me to help him with dinner tomorrow night which I shall do I think. This evening Mrs Jayne and Mrs. Jackson both have gone to the Kebo this evening for the first time this season. I had intended going to the village this evening but have now changed my mind and shall not go. I am not going to wait up for the folks tonight.
Went to bed at 11 O'clock.

August, SUNDAY 7. 1892.

This is a beautiful day. I got up early but did but little before breakfast. I was at church this morning and a good sermon. This afternoon I stayed in and written some letters. Then I gotten myself ready and went down to Dr. Longstreets and helped to serve dinner. There were 12 persons at Table and things went off nicely. I did not get home until 12 O'clock. I made two dollars out of it. I had a talk with Mr. Blaine's man on my way home about The Mars. He seemed to be well informed about this planet so I found him quite interesting indeed.

August, MONDAY 8. 1892.

Weather today not so fine as yesterday. I have been out taking notes for Mrs. Jayne today both morning and afternoon. also went to the village this afternoon and evening. I have been wanting to write all day but cant get at it some how for the life of me. I went for a cutunder for Mr Jayne this evening and when I came back I was that tired I could do nothing. Mr. Jayne is out and I am to wait u for him. I expect that I shall fall asleep before he comes though. I have had no letters today, though I was expecting some two or three. I, to bed at 11.30 Oclock.

August, TUESDAY 9. 1892.

It is looking like rain this morning. I was very late getting up. It did raine before 10 oclock today. I have been breaking boxes in the cellar for kindling-wood all morning and don't think it agreed with me altogether as I have been feeling alittle oddly ever since. Mrs. Jayne did not out any where this afternoon. Mr. J. M. Bullock was late to breakfast. I have gotten no letters today either. I can not tell what the trouble is with my Mother. The has not written to me at this summer. I shall go to bed very early tonight as I slept very badly last night and am now feeling quite sleepy.

August, WEDNESDAY 10. 1892.

Weather very hot. I got up at 5.30 Mr. Paul came this morning in time for breakfast. This is Mrs Jayne's morning at home and she had 8 callers. This afternoon I went to the village to take my wash, then to see the boat off. I afterwards went and heard the band play. I have had no letters yet form any one this week. I saw Parker while in the village this afternoon and he seemed to be some what cool so I did not stay with him long. I can tell you. However I had avery goot time this afternoon altogether. I haven't received any letters today either. my friends seem all to forget me at once.

August, THURSDAY 11. 1892.

Weather quite warm again today. There is not much to write of today. This evening I went to the village Mr. Jayne this evening. There is nothing to write about today. I waited up for Mr. Jayne and Paul.

1.30 when I went to bed

August, FRIDAY 12. 1892.

It has rained off and on all day. I have been doing odds and ends getting ready for the lunch tomorrow. I had to go to the village again this evening for Mr. Jayne. However I was sent down in the Germantown so I did nt mine going at all. Hattie and Jesse both went with me for aride. There is nothing to write so I shall stop and trying and go to bed

I have not received a letter yet.

August, SUNDAY 14. 1892.

It is clear today very late getting up. I did not get to church this morning. I am been lunging aroun all day doing nothing but sinning. I have again broken my promise. At times there seems to be no help for me in this thing. Still I shall never give it up. I will fight it as long as I live and surely, I must triumph in the end. For God himself has said so. I have not left the house today and shall not I think. I did not go to church tonight either. Mr Paul and Mr Jayne are both out and I am to waite up for them.

(I was on the seat on the peizzar)

This is something new

August, MONDAY 15. 1892.

It is cloudy, but looks as though it will soon clear up. The hold Jayne family have gone to North East Harbor this morning. I have been very busy all day. The first thing I did after the folks gotten off was to go and clean my room and clothes. Well it taken me nearly all day to do it. After having gotten through it I then cleaned the peizzar. The girls all went to the village except Lizzie this afternoon.

The folks came back about 6 Oclok

August, TUESDAY 16. 1892.

August, MONDAY 29. 1892.

Weather fine. up early Mr. Jayne has gone again to meet the Dr this morning, and is again disappointed. After breakfast the family all went driving I have been cleaning lamps and fixing up generally in and about the house. This afternoon I ironed some things of mine off. Had to stop and take a note for Mr. Jayne to Miss Matthews then I went and taken pillows to the boat for them.(Mr. Jayne and Miss M.) Mrs. Jayne and Mr. E. Jayne have gone for a drive. There is nothing to worth writing today.

August, TUESDAY 30. 1892.

Weather cloudy up early did not sleep well. The family are all going boating today. 10 O'clock Dr. Jayne arrived all the family out he is looking well. I have been bussy all morning. The folks were very late getting back from their boating. I have been expecting letters all week but have not as yet gotten any. I have been reading Saints rest today and like it so much that I can't help reading all the time. This evening I went for a walk. It is so tiresome to stay in the house all the evening. When I came back the family had gone to bed. So having nothing better to do I did likewise. It is looking very much like rain out tonight.

August, WEDNESDAY 31. 1892.

Weather cloudy. up rather early. This being Mrs. Jayne's reception morning I have quite a lot of fixing up to do. There was quite a number of callers. I had intended going to the village this afternoon, but having so much to do I have given it up. This evening I did not go anywhere or do anything so it is lost. Went to bed early. Mr. E. Jayne left for Boston tonight.

September, THURSDAY 1. 1892

This is a beautiful morning. I have been busy today doing odd things around. I have received no letters this week so far. have written but one and that was to Mother. This afternoon I went to the village to post letters and to order fish for dinner. I also went down to the boat and saw her off and on my way home I called and got my vest. I have been reading papers all evening. Mr Jayne is out I am to wait up for him. Went to bed at 12 o'clock.

September, FRIDAY 2. 1892.

This is another beautiful day. I was very late getting up this morning. After breakfast I cleaned the piezza. The family are all out. This afternoon nothing much doing so I shall now I read Saints rest. Mrs. Jayne and the Dr have gone for a walk. Mr Bullock was in to see me just now. I have written letters to Mrs. Harrodd and Isaac Dennis today mr Jayne has been late to all his meals today. This evening every one has gone to bed at 9 o'clock so I shall do likewise.

September, SATURDAY 3. 1892.

Weather clear and cool.

I was quite late getting up as I had lots to do. I cleaned the hall before breakfast Then I filled the lamps. I was all through with my work by 12 oclock. This afternoon I taken a bath and gotten myself dressed for dinner. Mr Jayne is to be out to dinner again today he has been out three days hand running now. Mr Bullock is to be out too tonight. Maggie has gone for adrive with the ice man this evening, and Jessie and Hattie have gone to the village so they are all having agood time I hope I havae written some letters this evening besides reading the papers. Mr Jayne and Bullock both are very late getting in I went to bed at 12.30 oclock.

September, THURSDAY 8. 1892.

Weather still very beautiful. I was late getting up. There is nothing going on much today.
~~The Dr. and mr Bullock are both to leave Bar Harbor this afternoon or the Dr is not going now until tomorrow morning I believe. Mrs. Jayne is not so well. She did not come to breakfast this morning.~~

This evening The Dr. Mr. Jayne and Mr. Bullock are all going to the Matthews to play cards. This not being my night on I think that I shall go to bed early.

(I was in the dining room)

September, FRIDAY 9. 1892.

Weather still very fine up in good time. Mrs. Jayne is not well I hear, and she will not be down to breakfast. I filled lamps and than read the papers. Mr. Bullock is to leave this afternoon with his fishing party and the Dr. in the morning so we will then have avery small family to do for. for the rest of the season. I had a letter from Daniel Wilson today and from what I can understand I think he is going to be married soon now. Nothing doing so I believe I will go to bed.

September, SATURDAY 10. 1892.

Morning beautiful. Dr. Jayne has left for Phila. Mr Jayne has gone over to the train with him. Mrs. Jayne is to go out to lunch at the Matthews toay. This afternoon I went to the village. Things are looking pertty dull there now. This evening there is nothing doing so I shall take my bath and go to bed early.

September, SUNDAY 11. 1892.

Weather still very fine. I was up early got my work in good shape before breakfast after which, I went to church and heard agood sermon. On my way home from church I came by the post office and brough the mail. This afternoon Mrs. Jayne sent the girls for adrive and I stayed at home and kept house until they came back, than I went for awalk only ashort one though. This evening I went down to church. I saw Boston Brown ther and he came part the way home with me. He is to leave Bar Harbor to morrow for Boston. Jessie and Maggie are to leave here Tuesday night for Phila I believe. Mr. and Mrs Jayne either went to church today. Went to bed early.

September, MONDAY 12. 1892.

Weather still fine. I was up quite early after breakfast. I did nots of little things about the house. Had letters from William Handy, Eliza Dennis and Kate McNamee this morning. This afternoon I written o William Handy. There is not much to write about today so far.

This evening I went to the post Office. Mr Jayne being too tired to go he was out rowing all afternoon with Miss Matthews. Miss Sumsby and two of her friends came in to see us awhile tonight.

I have nothing else to write about so I shall now go to bed.

September, TUESDAY 13. 1892.

Weather much as yesterday was. I was up early but did little before berakfast. When I had finished my morning's work I cleaned the peazza and made chicken salad for lunch. John and I also brought the trunks down for Mrs. Jayne to the 2nd story hall. Miss C. Matthews taken lunching here today. This afternoon I made a center piece for the table of flowers and it looked quite pertty. This evening I have been to see the girls off. It makes be feel as if I would like to go also. still it will not be long now until I go. Evening. I thought to have gone to prayer meeting this evening but I see I shall not do so now as dinner is so late.

September, WEDNESDAY 14. 1892.

~~It is raining today~~ This is another very fine day. Mrs. Jayne has had 8 callers among them was Mr and Mrs Kennedy. There is nothing worth writing about so I shall now go to bed.

September, THURSDAY 15. 1892.

It is raining and blowing both this morning very hard. after breakfast, I helped Lizzie awhile with two rooms up stars which are to be closed today Things are beganing to look dull around here just now Mr. Jayne is talking as though we may go to Phila next week. I hope not for I want to stay here until the first of Oct if I can. This evening I had aletter from Isaac Dennis and he sent me his piciture in it. I do not think it good however I am very glad to have it all the same. I have been looking for letters from Baltimore all week but so far, they have not arrived. Today is much as yesterday was so there being nothing more to do or say I think that I shall go to bed.

September, FRIDAY 16. 1892.

This is another beautiful day. I have been heling Lizzie again this morning. This afternoon I cleaned the seller. Lizzie and Hattie both are out Mrs. Mary Higgins came up this afternoon and stayed for tea. This evening I want to go down to class if nothing happens. Mr. Jayne was on time for dinner so I am going to class.

When I came back I had to wait up for Mr. Jayne. He came in at 12.

I went to bed than as fast as my feet could take me for I was very sleppy.

September, SATURDAY 17. 1892.

Avery fine day. After breakfast I cleaned windows then I moved things from the trunk room to tank room had my dinner and went to the village for Lizzie before lunch time. Mr. Soaper's man brought me up home.

This afternoon there was nothing doing at all. Evening the same, so I am going to bed.

September, SUNDAY 18. 1892.

This is a beautiful day. I got up quite early and did some little things around the house before breakfast. I did not go to church because I am not feeling well so, Lizzie and Hattie have both gone this morning. Mrs. Jayne wanted me to go for a drive this afternoon but I did not care to go. Lizzie went to drive and Hattie went for a walk. I went to the post office with letters to post than came home and laid down for the rest of the afternoon. Hattie had a young friend to come home with her for tea and she seemed to be very nice. I did not go to church this evening either. I taken a little walk and went to bed early.

September, MONDAY 19. 1892.

Weather raining. up early. after breakfast I taken the close clothes to the wash-woman. Then I came back and taken Lizzie to the dentist. I have spent all morning going backwards and forwards, to the village so far. I have done nothing at all this afternoon. This evening Mr. Jayne has gone to the village I am to wait up for him. Mr Jayne had a hard time getting in as I did not hear the bell when he rang it. I think he was not very well pleased with me for it. I taken a bath and went to bed at a 11 O'clock

September, TUESDAY 20. 1892.

Weather fine. After breakfast I cleaned the lamps, did other odds and ends around the house then I went and cleaned my room. In the afternoon I washed some clothes for myself and saved one dollar by it. Mr. Jayne was very late for lunch. He was out with Miss Matthews and they were belated, by something I don't know what. I think that Mr. Jayne is a goner.

September, WEDNESDAY 21. 1892.

Weather much the same as yesterday. Well we have begun to put the house in order for winter today. Mr. Jayne and Miss Matthews are out again today and are later than ever to lunch. The young lady came to lunch with him today things are coming on nicely I think with the Jayne, Matthews combination. Mr. Jayne has to leave Bar Harbor to-morrow morning for Phila I know that he will be quite sorry to do so however. I hear that I am to move up in the house to sleep while Mrs. Jayne remains in Bar Harbor for this I am sorry as I like so well where I am at present. Henry, wife, children and horses left for home this evening.

(In my room)

September, THURSDAY 22. 1892.

I was up at 4 today so as to give Mr. Jayne breakfast as he is leving us on the early train. I went to the boat with him and saw him off. I think that this is the most beautiful morning that has ever been my pleasure to behold. After returning from the village I went to work putting the parlor in oder. John, Jerome and myself beat some rugs this afternoon. This evening I went to the post office for Mrs. Jayne and one or two other places in the village. Some man taken me up and brought me home in a buckboard from Cottage St and I was very thankful to him for it as I am so very tired tonight. I taken a bath and went to bed (I am sleeping in the Cottage)

September, FRIDAY 23. 1892.

Weather is like rain this morning up early moped the floors of the parlor and dinning before breakfast. Then John Jerome and I got at the rugs and cleaned them all. Our hands were feeling pertytly sore by the time we had finished. They than went with me to bring my trunk to the house. Miss Matthews was here and stayed so long and it go so dark that I had to walk home with her. I am so tired, I think I shall go to bed very soon. I had aletter from Mrs. A. Butler and a postal from Eliza Dennis. Eliza is in Washington D.C.

September, SUNDAY 25. 1892.

It is still looking like rain this morning. I got up early and taken abath. after breakfast I went to post office for Mrs. Jayne but got no mail, except a paper. I than went to church quite a young man spoke for us. He seemed very much ~~imbarest~~ embarrass I was sorry for him. After church I taken a little walk with Mr. Bates. In the afternoon I went to post a letter for Mrs. Jayne and to see the boat off. This evening Mrs. Jayne is to go to the Matthew's for dinner and Lizzie Hattie are both going to church so I am to stay at home and keep house until they all return. Went to bed early.

September, MONDAY 26. 1892.

It is raining. I was up early trimed the lamps before breakfast then I went for the mail. I have cleaned all the windows in the back building this fore noon. Afternoon I have did nothing besides reading of the news papers. This evening I went again for the mail also called at Mrs. Higgins for Mrs. Jayne while in the village.

There is nothing to write about tonight so I will stopt.

Went to bed early.

September, TUESDAY 27. 1892.

This is a beautiful morning I was up early but did nothing much until after breakfast. I then went for the mail and when I came back I swept and cleaned the cellar. In the afternoon I did some washing and packed some things for Phila. I received a letter today from George Washington, saying that he is to be married on the sixth of next month and wants me home, so as to attend it. I have replased a pitcher which I had broken in the chitchen.

I went for the mail again tonight and when I came back I tried to write a little but became so sleepy I had to go to bed at once.

September, THURSDAY 29. 1892.

This is a beautiful morning rather cloud I have been to the village and chacked trunks for Mrs Jayne and Lizzie. I then came back to the house in a cutunder and taken them to the boat and saw them off. Hattie and I are to leave this afternoon. 4.30 We are on our way to the station, and as we are now looking upon Bar Harbor it seems as though it never looked so beautiful as it now dose. We left Handcock at 5.22. I taken my supper in Bangor. Hattie was not well so she did not take anything at all.

In J-C-10.

September, FRIDAY 30. 1892.

This is another fine day. We arrived in Boston on time. I did not sleep any at all last night. We taken breakfast, then awalk before our train left. Today has been very long to me and I am quite tired. I arrived in Phila. at 7.30 P.M. went to the house (Jayne) had supper before coming to 1825 Walnut St. and when I came to Walnut St the girls told me that Mr Haseltine is on his way home and will be here about Monday. I went around to the Andersons and saw them.

In early and went to bed.

October, SATURDAY 1. 1892.

Weather fine. I was up early and went right to work. The first thing I did was to put down the hall carpet then I washed down the yard and when I was through I felt like going to bed, however I taken abath and went out for a while. I called on Sister A. Butler and she seemed to be very glad to see me. From there I went down to Broad St but it was very disagreeable and I did not stay long. When I came in I found Mr. Haseltine had come already, much to my surprise but I did not see him until morning. Went to bed early.

October, SUNDAY 2. 1892.

A beautiful day. I did not go to prayer meeting this morning not having any cook in the house I have to do the cooking After breakfast I went to church. We had a good sermon preached by Bro Brock. Every body seemed so glad to see me at church. I walked home with Mr. Brock from Church and had a talk with him. I was at Sunday school in the afternoon. after which I went to see the Anderson's, and Butlers. At church again this evening. Some man by the name of Anderson spoke. He made out pretty badly I think. I walked home with Mr. and Mrs. Rumford and Miss Brown. Came in and went to bed early.

This is avey fine morning. Nothing doing. Mrs. Woodland and Mr. Washington are to be married this evening. 8 P.M. I was at Brother Brocks and saw the marriage I think that I have seen the bride look better many a time. I went from the marriage to class this being my night to open. We did not have very many out but we had a good meeting after class I walked home with bro Butler. Came in early and went to bed

P.S. I loan D. King $100.00 one hundred dollars today he wants me to buy one of his houses out in Darby but I shall waite awhile and see first.

October, FRIDAY 7. 1892.

Late getting up today I have did nothing today either. This evening when I went out I called at the Anderson's met Mr. Brown there and we both taken supper at the Andersons. I did not go to ~~childrin~~ church tonight. I called on bro Butler and family, than came in and went to bed early

October, SATURDAY 8. 1892.

I was again late getting up today. After breakfast I finished the wine. I have have been busy with it off and on all week.

Mr. Haseltine has gone to the country for a day or two. I am so tired the evening I shall not go out any where at all this evening It has rained quite hard this evening.

October, SUNDAY 9. 1892.

I was up very early and at prayer meeting this morning. I did not leade bro Young open today. not many out. Meeting good. At church again at 12.45 and heard Mr Yeallmn spoke for us. This afternoon King and I went to Darby. King is very anxious that I should buy one of his houses in Darby but I do not know what I shall do about it yet. After getting in the city again I made some calls. I called on Mrs. Cornell and Mr. and Mrs. Washington had quite anice time the bride and groom are looking very charming. I then called on C. Walker who is very sick and he seemed to glad to see me that I shall always be glad I called.

October, MONDAY 10. 1892.

This is another beautiful day. I was late getting up this morning. Mr. Haseltine has been in the country since Satureday.

I have cleaned the front doors down this morning. There was a cook to have come toay has not as yet put in her appearncens. At board meeting this evening. paid over to board $3.22 Class money. I called at Mrs. Andersons before going to church.

October, TUESDAY 11. 1892.

There is no change in the weather from yesterday. We have heard nothing of the cook that was to have come yesterday. Mr Haseltine wants me to get some one to come in by the day to cook the dinner for the present so I went to Mrs. Bulters to see if she known of any one I could get but she knew of no one just now. Then I went to the Andersons and they also knew of no one. King is very anxious for me to buy his house out in Darby but I don't know what to do about it.
